Hello from the Head...

Happy Edition 200 of the Astley Advertiser! I really hope you find our weekly communication useful; as always, please let me know if you have any suggestions or ideas for improvement.

I hope you all had a lovely half term week, and as you can see by the dates overleaf, we are back with an ACE bang, with a busy and exciting half term ahead. I was impressed in assembly on Monday when so many children could talk to me about online safety and the importance of this. I have asked for posters to explain about online safety – optional but fun if the children would like to do this. Please do read and save the online safety parent factsheets as well.

We have received a heartfelt thank you from Briston Foodbank for all of the donations they received from us before half term. They are very grateful, and also asked me to remind families that they are there and always willing to help when needed.

From Tuesday next week we will be celebrating Anti Bullying week. Every afternoon classes will learn more about what bullying is, how to prevent it and how we can promote positivity and kindness in our community. Children are invited to wear odd socks from Tuesday to celebrate uniqueness and differences. There will be an exhibition of all of this ACE work on Monday 18th November after school in the hall – all are welcome to come and share your childrens' work with them.

Bears, Lions and Tigers please come in PE kit on Tuesday 12th for an exciting karate taster session! Reminder that there is no netball club next week, and we are looking forward to our Sharks Class Assembly on Wednesday at 2:45pm. Sharks families – please do come to our Maths session on Thursday 14th at 5pm.

Next Friday 15th we round off the week with a mufti non-uniform day in aid of Children in Need. No obligation – but please do bring in some pennies for Pudsey if you can. We will be collecting donations out on the playground before and after school.

Please remember that on Monday 11th we launch our new Arbor Parent Portal for payments. Any questions please let the office know.

Mrs Lord chooses our tunes today, have a fantastic Friyay and enjoy the weekend.
